

666 and You

”And he causeth all...that there be given them a mark on their right hand, or upon their forehead; and that no man should be able to buy or to sell, save he that hath the mark, even the name of the beast or the number of his name. Here is wisdom. He that hath understanding, let him count the number of the beast; for it is the number of a man: and his number is six hundred and sixty and six.” Revelation 13:16-18

MasterCard Inc. owns the trade-mark, name of the company, and number of the person. Similarly, the beast will own same of his mark.

What does it mean “for it is the number of a man”? In modern terms, wouldn't that be: “it is a person's account or ID number”?

What does it mean to “count the number”? What is there to count except the number of digits? Could the number on the card be called a 4444 number? If the world ID number of the future were 18 digits, then it could be written 111111111111111111, a 666 number.

Why will the mark of the Beast be different from what we use now every day? ”...If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand,” Revelation 14:19 One will have to worship the beast as god for his account to remain active.

No doubt cash will have been eliminated by that time, and the only way to buy or sell will be to have an active account in the global electronic system. If cash still existed then, how could the beast prohibit anyone from buying and selling. We are not far from that now, with only about 3% of purchases in the USA done with cash.

The future system could use more advanced technology, but no doubt will be the same in essence, and there is no reason to fear the present system until the future requirement to worship the beast.

It doesn't seem far off. Here is a current example of using RFID chips to identify persons¹, without implanting anything:

And here is a recent proposal to actually implant people with chips².

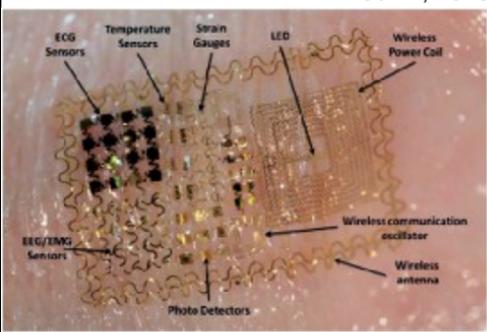

It is likely that the mark will be visible so that it can be known instantly if a person has it or not. With the technology we are familiar with, and the exploding use of RFID chips, it all seems so obvious to us. But generations past barely had a clue.

And what if one accepts the 666 mark when offered in the future? “... If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God, ... And the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever; they have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name.” Revelation 14:9-11 It appears it will include mind control³ which will make it impossible for a person to repent to obtain God's Salvation?

Furthermore: “...it became a loathsome and malignant sore on the people who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped his image.” Revelation 16:2, and strangely: “And in those days men will seek death and will not find it; they will long to die, and death flees from them.” Revelation 9:6 Could the Mark be promoted on the promise of giving long life, but would have some severe adverse side effects.

Could vaccines now be a glimpse of this future? They are promoted as great health, but in reality cause autism, brain damage, epilepsy, allergies, auto-immune diseases, reduced fertility, a weakened immune system, and actually protect you little or none from the targeted diseases.⁴ But people eagerly accept them, believing the promise that they are a great benefit.

Perhaps the most bizarre doctrine of Biblical Christianity is the Rapture: “For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven...with the trumpet of God...we who are alive and remain shall be caught up...in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air...” 1 Thessalonians 4:16-18

You don't want to be on earth when all this happens? Don't be left behind in the Rapture. Salvation is a personal matter between you and God and does not depend on rites, traditions, human effort or belonging to any church, religion or organization. “I, the Lord, search the heart, I test the mind, even to give to each man according to his ways” Jeremiah 17:10a No matter what kind of person you are or what you have done: “If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” 1 John 1:9 Pray today to put your faith in Jesus Christ alone: “For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life.” John 3:16 Then study the Bible to live in obedience to God: “...if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creature; the old things passed away; behold, new things have come.” 2 Corinthians 5:17

The prophecy of the mark of the beast in such exact detail, written 2000 years ago is evidence that the Bible is of divine origin.
